TORRE GLÒRIES

TORRE GLÒRIES

Torre Glòries is a space meticulously designed by Jean Nouvel, an architect known for creations like the Reina Sofia Museum in Madrid, and a recipient of the Pritzker Prize.

This building has become the second most photographed building after the Sagrada Familia. Additionally, the space offers 360° views of the city, making it truly unique
